

Colorado Transcript, February 29, 1912

PARTIES, CLUBS, LUNCHEONS AND SOCIAL GATHERINGS, COMINGS AND GOINGS OF GOLDENITES, ETC.

Prof. William George HALDANE, assistant professor of metallurgy at the School of Mines, and Miss Lorena BEAVER were married at high noon yesterday at the Central Presbyterian church, Denver, by the Rev. Dr. Robert F. COYLE. The bride was attended by Miss Estella Wade FARRELL, of Two Rivers, Wis., as maid of honor, Mr. Willis BOYLE, a Kappa Sigma man, was best man. Allan SPRIGG and Leo KOONTZMAN were ushers. The bride and her attendant were gowned in beautiful tailored suits. Prof. and Mrs. HALDANE will be at home to their friends at the WYMAN residence on Ford Street after a honeymoon trip.

A very quiet wedding took place at six o'clock last evening at the residence of the late Mrs. Calista CARTER, when Miss Sara became the bride of Mr. Henry KAANTA, of Telluride. Rev. KELANEY performed the ceremony, after which Mr. and Mrs. KAANTA left for their home in Telluride. Mr. KAANTA was formerly a School of Mines student.

Mrs. V.C. ALDERSON is among the patronesses who will receive Sir BADEN-POWELL in Denver on March 2nd. The famous British General will lecture at the Auditorium on the evening of March 2nd.

Monday night of last week, Mr. John WRIGHT entertained the Columbine club for Mrs. Michael GLEASON, nee Miss Celia RYAN. The decorations were red, white and blue. Miss Mary HEMBERGER won first prize and Mr. S.T. HUSSON second, both being beautiful chocolate pots.

The meetings of the Vice Versa club will be suspended during Lent except for occasional teas.

The Entre Nous club was delightfully entertained by Miss Viola SEAVER yesterday afternoon.

Mrs. J.W. BARNES will be hostess at the meeting of the Progressive club Friday afternoon. Humorous writers will be the subject discussed.

In compliment to Miss Elizabeth KELLY and Miss Freda MEENTS, Mrs. Harley WEST entertained the Bow Knot club Thursday afternoon. The decorations and appointments were in keeping with Washington's natal day. "500 bridge" was the amusement of the afternoon, Mrs. Grant PARTET and Mrs. Reed MORRILL winning the prizes.

Mr. Hal JOHNSTON, brother of Wm. JOHNSTON, Mines coach, and Miss Hazel WYATT were quietly married in Denver, Saturday, February 17, by the Rev. R.E. DICKENSON. After a short trip they will be at home in the Clarkson apartments.

The Faculty ladies spent a most pleasant afternoon with Mrs. Paul MEYER Friday.

Mrs. Sarah BARTHOLOMEW, of Denver, was the week end guest of her sister, Mrs. Mary S. JONES.

Mrs. Maud JACKSON will arrive from California today to visit her mother, Mrs. Jim MOORE, who has been quite ill for the past three weeks.

Mrs. E_____ J. OLNEY, of Idaho Springs, visited with the C.L. TITUS and Edward BARTON families last week.

Mrs. George K. KIMBALL has had a bad attack of rheumatism the past week but is improving.

An interesting meeting of the Golden circle of the Mothers Congress will be held next Wednesday afternoon, March 6th, at the North school at 4 o'clock. Mrs. Fred DICK, of Denver, will give a short talk as will also Mrs. A.G. FISH, state organizer. Mrs. H.B. PATTON and Miss GREINER will render solos and the North side pupils will furnish music. After the program tea will be served. All mothers and others interested in this work are urgently requested to attend whether they wish to become active members or not, and all wishing to affiliate actively with the organization are requested to bring twenty five cents for dues.

Mrs. Harry RUBEY held a Vice Versa club tea at her home afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Theo. Meents and family moved to Boulder Wednesday. Golden is indeed sorry to lose Miss Freda and Adelaide, who have endeared themselves to a host of friends here.

A number of jolly coasting parties were seen on the Court house hill the first of the week enjoying the splendid coasting.

Chandos WILLIAMS entertained a number of her little friends at a delightful party Monday afternoon. The occasion being in honor of her sixth birthday.

Miss Irene JOHNSON returned Sunday to Fort Collins after a few days visit with her parents in this city.

If anyone went home disappointed from the Grand Army ball, which took place last Thursday night, no one is to blame but himself, for a rattling good time was had by a large crowd which availed itself of the opportunity to trip the light fantastic. The old folks demonstrated that they also had not forgotten the art, and much amusement was created when the "old boys and girls" made merry. The dance was a great help to the Veterans financially, and with his usual generosity, Mr. COORS presented a check of $50 to the old soldiers.

Last Saturday evening Judge and Mrs. Wm. DIER attended the banquet given for the University of Illinois, at the Metropole hotel, Denver.

Mrs. Wm. DIER attended the banquet given for the University of Illinois, at the Metropole hotel, Denver.

To be quite fashionable these days one must have the grippe. There are a number of cases in town.

The W.A. DIER family and Master John DIER, of Denver, who is visiting here, were the dinner guests of Prof. and Mrs. C.L. TEST Tuesday evening.

Misses Eva and Estella NIXON attended the wedding of Miss Mary BOWLES and Mr. Thomas PATRICK at Westminster, Colo., last night.