FOOTHILLS INQUIRER

The first 16 issues (1981-1984) of the Foothills Inquirer provided information about club news, activities, meetings, and upcoming events. They also included book reviews, member stories and genealogical and historical information and records. The Colorado counties of Clear Creek, Gilpin, and Jefferson and Park were the emphasis throughout the years of publications. Since 1985, contents were primarily genealogical and historical information, records, and indexes for those counties,
